

Club Sällskapet in Stockholm
Arsenalsgatan 7, S-111 47 Stockholm, Sweden
Phone +46 8 679 55 90, email: info@sallskapet.se

General manager: Mr. John Josefson.
Membership manager: Mrs. Malin Fischerström Granat.

For reciprocal members a letter of introduction is required.
Reciprocal members with membership cards are also required to present a letter of introduction.

Lunch is available from 11:30 – 14:00 Monday through Friday.
Dinner is available from 18:00 – 21:00 Monday through Thursday, in addition to one Sunday per month.
The lounges are available from 10:00 – 23:30 Monday through Thursday; they close at 19:00 on Fridays.
The bar is available from 10:00 – 23:00 Monday through Thursday; it closes at 18:30 on Fridays.
No reservations are required for lunch or dinner, though it is recommended.
The headwaiter can be reached on telephone +46 8 679 51 12 or restaurang@sallskapet.se

Private meeting rooms are available for a fee.

Cash and the following credit cards are accepted as payment options: Amex, Visa and MasterCard.
Payment of all charges must be settled prior to the departure of the visiting member in cash or by accepted credit cards.

Ladies are restricted from the main dining hall during lunch hours.

Cash gratuities are not allowed nor is there an automatic gratuity. Cash contributions to the staff Christmas fund is appreciated, and is deposited to the Club chancellery.

Dress code: Jacket, collared shirt and tie at all times; no jeans or sneakers.

The Club house is located in central Stockholm close to the Old Town.
There is no parking available outside the club house.

The Club is closed on Saturdays and most Sundays and during Easter, Christmas, New Year and public holidays.
Annual closure: mid June to mid August.

The Club house is open for private functions on Friday evenings, Saturdays and Sundays.

No overnight accommodations can be offered, though the Club has an agreement with two 5* hotels within walking distance.

High speed internet is available throughout the Club house.
Additional amenities include a cigar lounge, access to private box at the Royal Opera House, billiard room and library.

